CHARLES P. (Chuck) ERICKSON
Director of Athletics

The director of athletics at the University of North Carolina is Charles P. (Chuck) Erickson, who in one way or another has been connected with athletics here for more than thirty years.

As an undergraduate, he was a star halfback and also lettered in track. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in 1931. A native of Oak Park, Illinois, he had come here as a footballer under Coach Chuck Collins after attending the University of Wisconsin for one year.

Following his graduation, he entered business for two years and then returned to Chapel Hill to work in the athletic department. He first served as assistant graduate manager of athletics, engaged in field work as a fund raiser and also had a hitch of coaching and scouting.

Then came a tour with the Navy as a lt. commander, following which he was named assistant director of athletics, working with Robert A. (Coach Bob) Fetzer. During this period he amassed a vast background of knowledge in such administration. His achievements as Assistant included the scheduling of high ranking football games, made possible by his popularity and wide connections.

When "Coach Bob" retired in June of 1952, Erickson was named to succeed him. He has served in this capacity since then, handling this position, with its multiplicity of duties and problems, with high distinction. Carolina has an outstanding and comprehensive athletic program with fine facilities, for which the Director of Athletics is responsible to the Chancellor and the University.

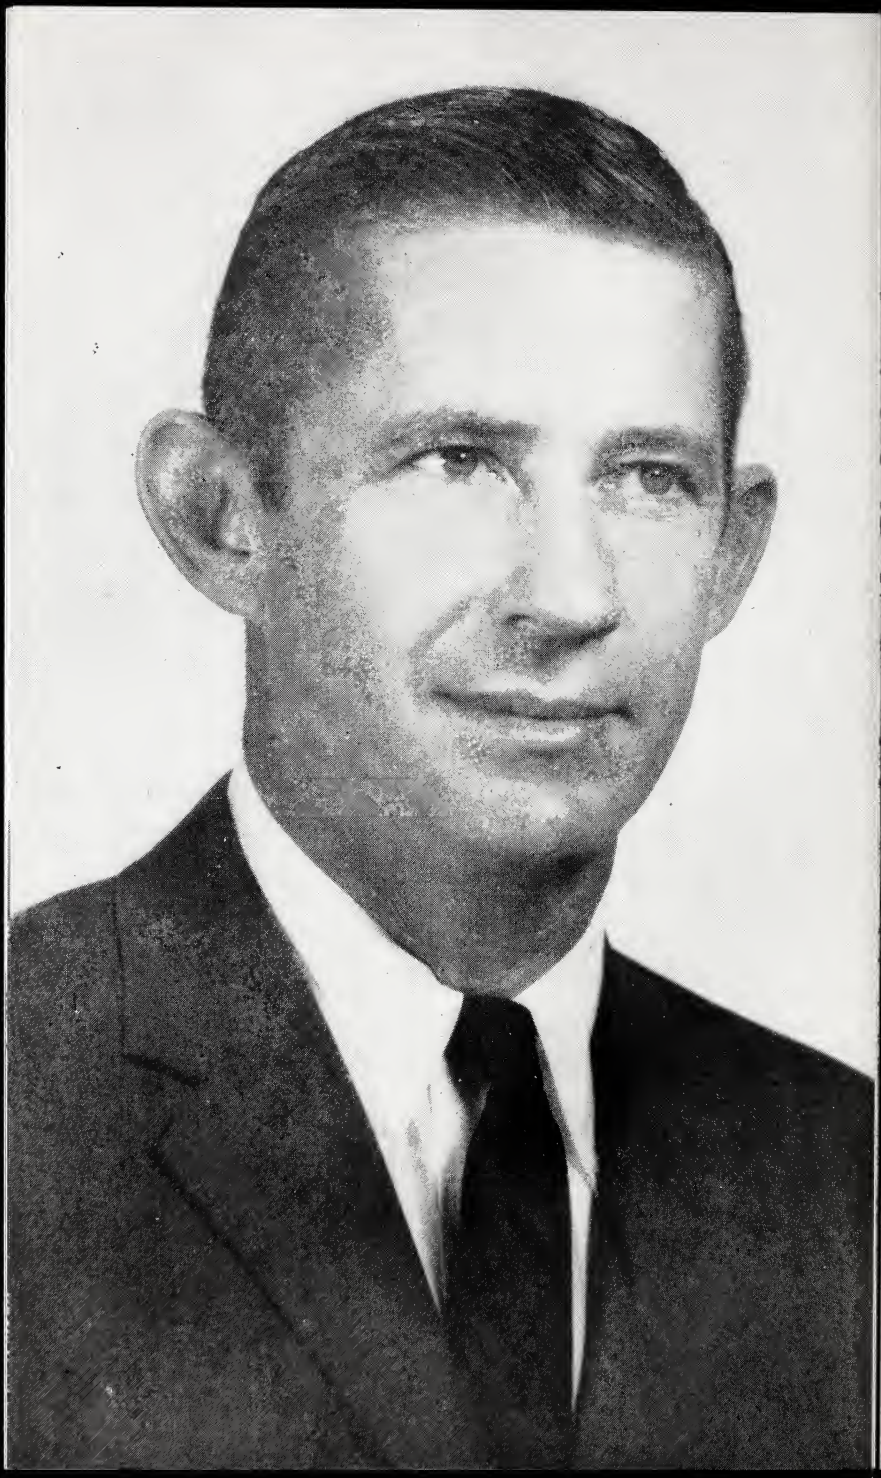
Erickson for many years has doubled as Carolina's golf coach and has been outstandingly successful. His teams won Southern Conference championships, both team and individual, in 1952 and 1953, and his golfers were runners-up in both team and individual play in the 1953 NCAA championships. His 1956 team won team and individual titles in the ACC tournament with record scores. His 1960 team lost only one match (to Georgia) and then won the ACC championship in the annual tournament.

He turned out a national champion in Harvie Ward (1949), who later won the British Amateur and twice the U. S. Amateur. He is a former president of the National Golf Coaches Association.

Erickson's interest in golf was directly responsible for construction of the University's own fine 18-hole course and club house. He became a firm friend of Mr. A. E. Finley of Raleigh, whose contributions made these projects possible.

Erickson has been chairman of the important Atlantic Coast Conference television and bowl committees.

He is married to the former Mildred Wanell and they have a teen-age daughter, Susan.



JAMES BENTON (JIM) HICKEY
Head Football Coach

Jim Hickey is beginning his second season as head football coach of the University of North Carolina, having been named to the post in July, 1959, following the death of Jim Tatum.

Hickey, who is 40 years old, previously had been a valued assistant on Tatum's staff for three years, being a member of the original group Tatum appointed on returning to Carolina from Maryland.

Hickey's first Carolina team had a record of 5-5, finishing strong with smashing victories over Virginia and Duke. Strong-minded but affable, he is enormously popular and has earned high respect of the administration, alumni and his players.

Hickey came to Chapel Hill from Hampden-Sydney College, where he was head coach for five years (1951-55). He was also athletic director the last four of those five years.

His coaching record at Hampden-Sydney was 27 wins, 11 defeats and four ties. His teams won two Mason-Dixie conference championships. Hickey twice was named Virginia "Coach of the Year."

Hickey did his first coaching at John Marshall high school in Richmond, Va. He went there in 1947 and was head coach four years. His record was 27 wins, 11 defeats and two ties.

The Tar Heel coach was born on Jan. 22, 1920, at Springdale, Pa. Springdale is a town fifteen miles outside of Pittsburgh and in an area celebrated for fine high school football players. George Barclay, Bud Carson, Dick Buck, Paul Severin and Harry Montgomery, some of Carolina's past football greats, all lived within seven miles of Hickey's home.

In high school Hickey won monograms in football, basketball and baseball. He made the WPIAL all-district team in both football and basketball.

Jim entered the College of William and Mary in the fall of 1938. He graduated with an A.B. Degree in history in 1942. At William and Mary he was a three year letterman in football and, in his senior year, went out for basketball and made the starting team.

Hickey was coached by Carl Voyles at William and Mary. He weighed only 155 pounds and was never on the starting football team, but was considered a fine little back, noted for his speed and cleverness. Throughout his college career he was sort of a "utility man" in the backfield, playing tailback, wingback and occasionally even blocking back in the single wing system.

After finishing William and Mary, he entered the Navy, trained at Notre Dame and Columbia and had 2½ years service on a destroyer overseas. He was discharged in December, 1945, as a full lieutenant.

In April, 1945, he was married to the former Pat Foss of Wooster, Ohio, who was a student at William and Mary when he was in school there.

The Hickeys have four daughters, Lynne, 1; Anne, 5; Sue, 12; and Jill, 14.

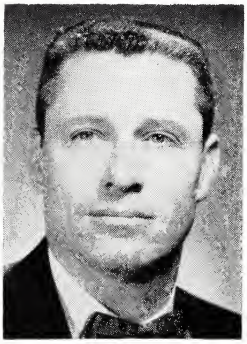
The Hickeys are Presbyterians.

Jim's favorite recreation is golf. He plays the game well.

Emmett Cheek

Assistant Coach

One of the busiest men on the North Carolina coaching staff is Emmett Cheek (UNC '48), who in addition to his field coaching is administrative assistant to the head coach, has general charge of the football offices and keeps strict tab on player personnel. He is also head scout and manages the "scouting team." Emmett is co-author (with Eddie Teague) of a definitive book on scouting.



A native of Chapel Hill, Emmett, after serving his army hitch was a superior lineman under Carl Snavely on some of his great teams here. He also was a star catcher on the baseball team, with long hitting his forte. He received his M.A. degree here in Physical Education in 1950 and has made coaching his life's work.

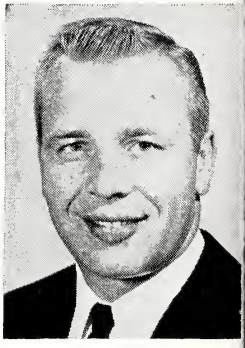
Cheek, who was born on Dec. 9, 1918, was line coach and baseball coach at Guilford College in 1949 and 1950. Then he joined Jim Tatum's staff at Maryland and was associated with Tatum there and here until the latter died in 1959.

Emmett is married to the former Mary Sue Moore of Greenville, N.C. They have one son.

Fred Tullai

Assistant Coach

Fred Tullai came here with the late Jim Tatum in 1956, was freshman coach his first year and now moves into his fourth year as varsity assistant. A Maryland graduate of 1955, Fred was one of the Atlantic Coast Conference's top linemen for three seasons. He played both center and guard.



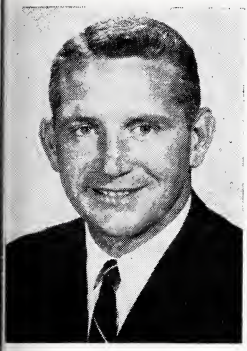
Born in Essington, Pa., on Feb. 20, 1930, Tullai made a distinguished record as a high school player before entering the service prior to matriculating at Maryland. He was also a brilliant service player in the Marine Corps.

Tullai's first experience at coaching was as a student at Maryland in 1954 when he had to be red-shirted as the result of an injury. Coach Tatum designated him to work with the freshman linemen. Tatum was so impressed with his work that he selected him to come along with him to Chapel Hill where Fred for the first time became a full-time coach.

He is married to the former Twila Bender of Wakeeney, Kansas. They have a young daughter and son, the latter named James Moore Tullai after Coach Tatum.

Ed Kensler

Assistant Coach



Ed Kensler was one of the late Jim Tatum's star pupils at Maryland. He played tackle, guard and center and came up with All-Conference honors. Before going to Maryland he served in the Marine Corps. He graduated from Maryland in 1952.

The Lawrenceville, Ill., native, who has the looks of a movie star, was born on Jan. 29. 1928.

He was selected to play in the Chicago Tribune All-Star game upon graduation and then embarked on a coaching career, his first job being at Washington and Lee. From there he moved over to the V.M.I. staff as line coach and then was recalled by Tatum as an assistant at Maryland.

Ed followed Tatum to North Carolina and has been here since. He has served in various capacities. Under Jim Hickey he has continued as purchasing agent and supervisor of equipment in addition to his coaching and scouting duties.

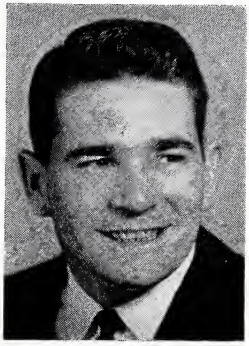
In Chapel Hill he has been active in civic and church work. He is married to the former Judy Speake of Luray, Va. They have a son and a daughter.

Bud Carson

Assistant Coach

Leon (Bud) Carson is a North Carolina graduate of 1952 who starred on Tar Heel teams from 1948-51 under Carl Snavely. He played primarily as the deep man on the defensive team.

Carson was born April 28, 1930, in Freeport, Pa., an area from which so many fine football players have come.



After graduating from Carolina, he joined the Marines and played on the Quantico team two seasons before beginning his coaching career.

He was a successful high school coach at Scottsdale, Pa., three years and then was tapped for an assistant's post at Carolina by the late Jim Tatum when Eddie Teague moved from here to The Citadel.

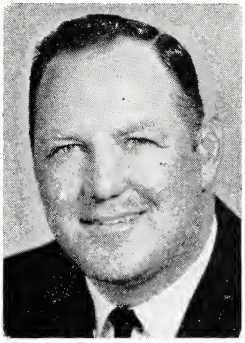
One year, in Tatum's rotation system, Carson was freshman coach and had a fine season. He is beginning his second year on the varsity staff with his brother, Gib, one of the stars. He is also a scout and a recruiter. He has been very successful in recruiting in his home area.

Bud is married to the former Jean Hetrich of Natrona Heights, Pa., and they have a daughter and a son.

Ernie Williamson

Executive Secretary, N. C. Educational Foundation, Inc.

Ernie Williamson has a multiplicity of duties. He is a member of the coaching staff, a talent recruiter, and executive secretary of the North Carolina Educational Foundation, Inc. Thus, he keeps on the move all the time.



Born in Crewe, Va., on Sept. 9, 1922, Ernie, a giant of a man, is a North Carolina graduate with A.B. and M.A. degrees. He played one season of football here under Carl Snavely in 1946 and was a tremendous tackle. He was lured away to play professional football and had tenures with Washington and Los Angeles before his career was cut short by a knee injury.

Ernie returned to Chapel Hill to complete his education and went to the University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn., where he was an assistant football coach two years and head coach three years. He also coached wrestling and track.

Married to the former Elva Smith of Lawrenceville, Va., Ernie is the father of a son and daughter, the former a star in Little League baseball.

Ed Fullerton

Assistant Coach

Ed Fullerton, a Maryland graduate of 1953 and co-captain of the 1952 team, was the late Jim Tatum's last appointment to the North Carolina staff. He was named following the resignation of Pat Preston to join the Montreal staff in the Canadian professional league.

Prior to coming here in the summer of 1959, Fullerton had been an assistant coach under Tommy Mont at Maryland since 1956.

Twenty-nine years old, born at West View, Pa., on April 7, 1931, Ed was a great star at Maryland, playing both halfback and fullback, showing he could go both ways—defense and offense — in the two-platoon days. He had one of his biggest days in the Sugar Bowl game following the 1951 season, when he scored two touchdowns and passed for a third in Maryland's 20-13 win over Tennessee. He played service football with the Bolling Air Force team and had one season with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

He is married to the former Joan Walton, also of West View, and has two sons. Golf is his hobby and he is one of the best players on the staff.

Joe Mark

Assistant Coach

When Jim Hickey became North Carolina head coach he had a vacancy on his staff and promptly named Joe Mark, from his alma mater, William and Mary, to the post. Mark, an Indian star as blocking back and guard and co-captain in 1950 who graduated in 1951, became the new North Carolina freshman coach. This year he has been made a varsity assistant.

Mark, 28, came here with a good coaching background. He first was an assistant at William and Mary in 1953 as a graduate student after a hitch in the service. He played service football at Fort Eustis, Va. After receiving his M.A. degree at William and Mary, he coached high school football at Vero Beach, Fla.

Joe returned to William and Mary in 1956 and was on the Indian staff for three seasons. He also was golf coach at William and Mary.

Mark is married to the former Faith Ann DeBolt of Hampton, Va., where he also was born. They have a son and daughter.

Bob Thalman

Freshman Coach

Robert J. (Bob) Thalman joined Carolina's coaching staff last spring, in time to put in his first licks at spring practice. He will have charge of the freshmen this year.

Thalman for four years was football coach and athletic director at Hampden-Sydney, where he was associated with Coach Jim Hickey, before he came here. He made a distinguished record, his teams winning 26 games while losing nine and tying one. His 1957 team lost only one game and won the Mason-Dixon conference championship.

Before that, Thalman, 37 and a native of Wheeling, W. Va., coached successfully for three years at Benedictine High School in Richmond, Va., and two years at Norview high at Norfolk, Va.

A 1948 graduate of the University of Richmond, where he was a star guard, Thalman played two years of professional football with the old Richmond Rebels before beginning his coaching career. Thalman also attended Belmont Abbey College.

He is married to the former Mary Elizabeth Schnupp of Wheeling, W. Va. They have four children, two boys and two girls.

John Lacey
Head Trainer

Holding the distinction of having been trainer of three national championship teams, football and lacrosse at Maryland and basketball at North Carolina, John Lacey is in his fifth year as head trainer here.

Dapper John, a native of Wallingford, Conn., has a wide background of training experience. He was five years at Maryland with the late Jim Tatum before coming here. Prior to that he was a trainer at Yale four years and also was a trainer with three professional football teams—the Chicago Rockets, New York Yanks and Baltimore Colts.

He attended high school in his home town and also prepped at Tilton Academy in New Hampshire. During World War II he had his first training experience at Camp Robinson Base Hospital at Little Rock, Ark., and studied at the Eastern School in New York under Dr. S. E. Bilik and the Junior College of Therapy at New Haven. He also was a student in the Yale University Department of Health.

Lacey was born on Aug. 28, 1917. He is married to the former Barbara Koch of Wallingford, Conn. They have no children.

Warren Morris
Assistant Trainer

A graduate of Iowa State Teachers College in 1954 and holder of an M.A. degree from Maryland (1956), Warren is moving into his fourth year as an assistant trainer at North Carolina.

Morris won college monograms in four sports, football, basketball, track and baseball after an illustrious high school athletic career in his home town, Boone, Iowa, where he was born on March 20, 1932. He also played service basketball and baseball at Fort Eustice, Va., and worked as a trainer there in the Special Service.

When he was stationed at Fort Meade he worked on the training staff at Maryland where he came to know North Carolina head trainer John Lacey, who nominated him for his job here.

Warren's sports background also includes a successful high school coaching career at the Algona, Iowa, high school. He coached football, track and baseball, in addition to serving as trainer.

He is married to the former Adel Herbst of Algona. They have two children, a boy and a girl.

THE 1960 OUTLOOK

If the Tar Heels could pick up where they left off last season University of North Carolina people would be mighty happy thi autumn.

There are pleasant memories of the smashing defeats hande Virginia and Duke in the closing games of the 1959 campaign. Ninety one points collected in those two engagements, zero for opponents

Nothing like that is expected, of course, as a new season opens Many of the "name" players, such as Jack Cummings, Al Goldstein Don Klochak, Wade Smith, Don Stallings and Moose Butler, hav departed. Yet there are enough sound holdovers along with a crop o bright newcomers, combined with the conviction that Coach Jin Hickey now has a well organized, disciplined program underway, t justify quiet optimism among the Tar Heel loyalists.

Twenty-two lettermen, including seven of the men who starte the 1959 wind-up against Duke, are slated to be on hand.

Hickey is building his second UNC team around Rip Hawkins a brilliant senior linebacker from Cowan, Tenn., who is regarded a a prime All-America candidate. The team should be strong dow the middle with three outstanding fullbacks in Bob Elliott, Jo Davies and George Knox, and highly promising quarterbacks in Ra Farris, Ward Marslender and John Flournoy.

Farris, who split duty with Cummings last season, is the onl experienced signal caller, but Marslender, who was not used in 195 and is a football sophomore, showed so much potential in sprin practice that his duel with Farris for the starting job will be on of the intriguing aspects of the team this fall. Flournoy is a toug little fellow, ineligible as a transfer in 1959, who is ready to step i if either falters.

Hickey, restrained and conservative in comments about pro pects, can see a decided lack of depth in the guard and end posi tions. Also, the Tar Heels are yet to turn up another really outstand ing halfback although all the backs performed with distinction i the Blue-White game. They are sure to be solid, and some have th potential of flashiness. "I suspect we will miss Wade Smith more tha any other player," says Hickey. Smith was not only consistent an hard-nosed but at times a deceptive as well as strong runner.

The Tar Heels, with four experienced tackles and at least on sophomore (Tony Hennessey) of exceptionable promise, appear t be best fortified in that vital area than at any time recently.

In addition to Hennessey, Marslender and Flournoy, newcome who seem most likely to succeed this fall are center Joe Craver, guar Duff Greene, giant tackle Don Scott, and halfback Jimmy Addiso Injuries sidelined Addison as a freshman, but he has the earmarks o being a superlative runner with speed and finesse.

More overall speed is counted on. Passing and punting have bee given grade-A marks. Size is no problem. The Tar Heels had a 5- record last year, not good enough. They play the same schedule i 1960, with Notre Dame (28-8 winner in 1959 when Carolina droppe to its season's low), appearing in Chapel Hill in the third game o the season, to be tailored as a gala Homecoming.

left side. . . . Converted high school fullback. . . . Rugged on defense, smooth on offense. . . . Lot of desire, hustle. . . . Two-year veteran. . . . Business Administration major.

JOHN RUNCO, 5-11, 195, 19, Sophomore, Arnold, Pa. . . . Seems ready to shift into gear this year after sitting out last season. . . . Turned in fine spring practice performance, ranked third behind Schroeder and Greenday at "lonesome end" . . . Runs pass patterns deceptively, adequate on defense. . . . Majoring in Mathematics.

JOHN SCHROEDER, 6-2, 202, 25, Senior, Alexandria, Va. . . . Switched from left to right flank to replace "lonesome" Al Goldstein. . . . After fine sophomore year, was second leading receiver on team in '59—12 catches, 158 yards. . . . Despite bad leg. . . . Went full steam in spring practice, was outstanding, should have great year. . . . Perfect equipment for end, might be leading pass receiver, defensive stalwart. . . . Industrial Relations.

CONRAD SLOOP, 5-11, 209, 21, Junior, Kannapolis, N. C. . . . Ranked as top man at left end after spring practice. . . . Former halfback, is swift afoot. . . . Solidly built, hits hard and clean. . . . Being counted on heavily. . . . A little short on experience. . . . Industrial Relations.

STEVE YATES, 5-11, 184, 18, Sophomore, Freeport, Pa. . . . Favorite target for freshman aerialists last season. . . . Some more poundage would help him. . . . Bright prospect, but probably will not play much this year. . . . He's a comer, though. . . . Three-sport man in high school.

RABE WALTON, 6-0, 208, 24, Senior, Portsmouth, Va. . . . Quarterback as Sophomore and averaged five yards per rush in limited action. . . . Switched to end last season, playing on "lonesome" side as one of Al Goldstein's understudies. . . . Caught one pass for 10 yards. . . . Hard-nosed and rough on defense. . . . Missed spring practice when not in school.

TACKLES

Lettermen Returning (4)—John Stunda, Ralph Steele, John Hegarty, Ben Gallagher.

Lettermen Lost (2)—Don Stallings, Moose Butler.

DON AMOS, 6-0, 216, 20, Sophomore, Murphy, N. C. . . . Good speed for a big man. . . . Has looked good on offense, needs defensive work. . . . Chances slim for much action this season.

BEN GALLAGHER, 6-1, 226, 20, Junior, Charlotte, N. C. . . . Broke in with varsity as Sophomore. . . . Pushing Hegarty for starting role this fall. . . . Big, massive, mobile. . . . Called "Buddha" by teammates. . . . Plans to major in Business Administration.

TONY HENNESSEY, 6-3, 262, 18, Sophomore, Reading, Pa. . . Top line prospect up from freshman team. . . . High school All-America, sought by numerous schools. . . . Ranked third at left tackle after spring practice. . . . Could become one of best linemen in Carolina history. . . . Needs experience, though.

JOHN HEGARTY, 6-3, 221, 20, Junior, Village Green, Pa. . . Became a starter as a sophomore in '59. . . . Turned in several top-flight performances. . . . Should repeat as a starter this fall. . . . Has average speed, but covers territory. . . . May be half of answer to Carolina's chronic tackle problems.

DON SCOTT, 6-0, 282, 20, Sophomore, Wadesboro, N. C. . . . Heftiest man on squad. . . . Reputed as immovable obstacle. . . . Rated third at right tackle after Blue-White game. . . . Should play quite a bit in '60. . . . Quick for his size. . . . Physical Education.

JIM SHUMATE, 6-2, 215, 21, Junior, N. Wilkesboro, N. C. . . All-America in high school, brilliant as a freshman here. . . . But still hasn't developed potential with varsity. . . . Could be the awakening this season. . . . Personable, well-liked by teammates. . . Industrial Relations.

GENE SIGMON, 6-2, 202, 19, Sophomore, Newton, N. C. . . Starting end on freshman team last fall. . . . Moved to tackle in spring. . . . Has looked good, but needs experience. . . . Outstanding high school basketball and baseball performer. . . . Likes to swim. . . Education major.

DON SOFRANKO, 6-1, 215, 21, Junior, New Salem, Pa. . . . Redshirted last year, when he was a guard. . . . Considered to have potential to be great tackle. . . . Still learning, however. . . . Very strong, has skimmed off 25 pounds in last year. . . . Known as "Snuffy" by his friends. . . . A Sociology major.

RALPH STEELE, 5-11, 217, 22, Senior, N. Wilkesboro, N. C. . . Lettered in '57 and '58, missed last year because of academic problems. . . . Showed well in spring drills. . . . Should see lots of reserve action. . . . Played guard in '58. . . . Business major.

JOHN STUNDA, 6-3, 224, 23, Senior, Monassen, Pa . . . Two-year, letter-winning veteran. . . . Rated top man at right tackle after Blue-White game. . . . Wonderful size, movements for tackle. . . Tall and strong, fiery competitor. . . . Should anchor position effectively. . . . Industrial Relations.

GUARDS

Lettermen Returning (3)—Jim LeCompte, Fred Mueller, Frank Riggs.

Lettermen Lost (4)—Bob Shupin, Paul Russell, Ed Kordalski, Herman Ray.

WILL BROWNE, 6-1, 206, 21, Sophomore, Brooklandville, Md.... Moved to guard from center the last week of spring practice. . . . Was injured early last year, sat out the season. . . . Real tough competitor, should get into action when he gets new position down pat. . . . Learns fast. . . . Business.

JERRY CABE, 5-10, 191, 19, Sophomore, Brevard, N. C. . . . Very promising strong greenhorn. . . . Injured for most of spring practice, played only last few days. . . . But was first string guard on strong freshman team. . . . Expected to be a fine player with seasoning. . . . Brother Tom is an end. . . . Excellent student. . . . Pre-med.

HUGH COLVIN, 5-10, 208, 19, Sophomore, South Boston, Va. . . . Hard-rock tackle with freshmen last year, was moved to guard in spring practice. . . . Was very impressive in spring drills. . . . Potentially a standout, has good chance of seeing lot of reserve action in '60. . . . Agile, fast. . . . Bespectacled off the field, but not on.

BRUCE GREENE, 6-0, 196, 20, Sophomore, Wynnewood, Pa. . . . Injured back first day of spring practice, didn't return till last week of drills. . . . Still turned in surprising job in little time played. . . . Also had back trouble with freshmen, where he played second team. . . . Probably a year away from big action. . . . Pre-law student.

DUFF GREENE, 5-11, 204, 20, Sophomore, Wynnewood, Pa. . . . Twin brother of Bruce. . . . Played first string freshman ball, was outstanding. . . . Ranked number two with varsity in spring practice. . . . A little slow on reaction, fairly quick. . . . Rough customer. . . . Should play a lot this fall. . . . Was a fullback and guard in prep school. . . . Plans career as a lawyer and politician.

JIM HOKANSON, 6-2, 207, 21, Senior, Pittsburgh, Pa. . . . Played but didn't letter last fall. . . . Tallest guard on squad. . . . Big and mobile, a real hustler. . . . Needs work on defense. . . . Should be front-line reserve behind Riggs. . . . Fine student in School of Education with History major.

BOB KNIGHT, 5-11, 202, 20, Sophomore, Munhall, Pa. . . . One of top tackles with freshmen, switched to guard in spring workouts. . . . Needs more weight and strength for big action, is a year away from potential. . . . Business major.

JIM LECOMPTE, 6-2, 226, 19, Junior, Gaithersburg, Md. . . . All-State tackle in high school. . . . Played center as freshman here. . . .

Switched to first string guard in '59 in key strategic move. . . . Shifted to tackle in spring to take advantage of his size. . . . Now back at guard. . . . Good speed. . . . Plans coaching career.

SAM LOFLIN, 5-8, 207, 20, Sophomore, Salisbury, N. C. . . . Was on squad but failed to play last year. . . . Demonstrated marked improvement in spring practice. . . . Smallest guard of the bunch at 5-8, good for "submarining." . . . May play some this campaign. . . . Married. . . . Plans business career.

BENTON McMILLAN, 6-1, 202, 20, Sophomore, Wilson, N. C. . . . This could well be his year. . . . Sat out last season as an end, did well in spring practice. . . . Played guard in high school and now shifted back to old position. . . . Cuts well on pass patterns, gets behind defenders. . . . Loves to hunt and fish. . . . Industrial Relations.

FRED MUELLER, 5-11, 204, 24, Senior, Iselin, N. J. . . . Started as a sophomore, but played behind Frank Riggs last season. . . . Will start with Riggs this fall. . . . Compact and nail-tough, has cat-like movements. . . . Likely will have to be iron man in '60. . . . Married . . . Physical Education major.

FRANK RIGGS, 6-0, 212, 22, Senior, Baltimore, Md. . . . Rugged starter, co-captain. . . . Broke into starting lineup in '59's early season reshuffle, established self as mainstay. . . . Powerfully built agile in his movements. . . . Played end as freshman. . . . A fanatic on conditioning. . . . Well-liked by entire student body. . . . Hard hitting. . . . Outstanding lacrosse halfback.

STEVE SERENKO, 6-2, 202, 19, Sophomore, Bovard, Pa. . . . Very promising sophomore with good football equipment. . . . Greenness needs toughening. . . . Could be quicker, but moves smartly. . . . Probably a year away from game action.

HENRY TAYLOR, 5-11, 196, 20, Junior, Wilson, N. C. . . . Big high school star, has yet to come around soundly at Carolina. . . . Big problem is slowness. . . . Crushing tackler on defense.

JACK TILLERY, 5-10, 176, 20, Junior, Wilson, N. C. . . . Teammate of Taylor in high school. . . . Powerful, swift—but diminutive . . . Excellent movements, defensively and offensively. . . . Indomitable spirit, hustle. . . . Size is against him. . . . Married. . . . Pre-med

The Opponents . . .

Information on Carolina's opponents for 1960 is provided on the following ten pages.

The same teams met last season will be played, which means the usual rough UNC schedule. In 1959 the Tar Heels broke even, winning five and losing five.

This season Notre Dame invades Chapel Hill for the first time since 1955. This game is scheduled on Oct. 8 and it will be Homecoming for the Tar Heels.

It's Band Day on Oct. 15 at the Wake Forest game and Dad's Day on Nov. 12 when Maryland plays in Chapel Hill.

Other home games are the opener with N. C. State, Sept. 24, and the finale with Duke on Nov. 19.

In away games, the Tar Heels meet Miami, South Carolina, Tennessee, Clemson and Virginia.

Wins last season were over N. C. State, South Carolina, Wake Forest, Virginia and Duke. Losses were to Clemson, Notre Dame, Maryland, Tennessee and Miami.

All-time records with these teams (NC score first): N. C. State (35-6-8); Miami (3-1); Notre Dame (0-10); Wake Forest (38-16-2); South Carolina (25-6-4); Tennessee (9-19-1); Clemson (4-4); Maryland (15-10-1); Duke (19-23-3); Virginia (34-27-3).

EARLE EDWARDS

HEAD COACH: Earle Edwards

LOCATION: Raleigh, N. C.

NICKNAME: Wolfpack

COLORS: Red and White

CONFERENCE: Atlantic Coast

ENROLLMENT: 6,100

PUBLICITY DIRECTOR: Frank Weedon

1960 OUTLOOK: North Carolina State figures to improve upon its 1959 record of one win in ten games (five of the losses were by five points or less), mainly because of the presence of All-America quarterback candidate Roman Gabriel, among the 17 returning lettermen.

Gabriel established six new Atlantic Coast Conference and seven State passing records last year as a sophomore. The 6'4", 210-pounder was the most accurate passer in the NCAA's listing of the top 25 passers in the major college ranks last year, hitting on .604 per cent of his tosses. The sharp play-caller will have a year's experience in directing Coach Earle Edwards' unbalanced winged-T and slotback offense.

The Wolfpack should have a solid running attack, although lacking the "home-run" threat. Lettermen John Stanton, Al Taylor, Claude Gibson and Randy Harrell will run at halfback, while sophomore Roger Moore could be a standout at fullback.

COLORS: Orange, Green and White

CONFERENCE: Independent

ENROLLMENT: 1350

PUBLICITY DIRECTORS: George Gallet and Wilbert Bach

1960 OUTLOOK: Miami's real big problem is to find a quarterback to replace All-America Fran Curci. The post may go to a sophomore, Eddie Johns, or a junior college transfer, Bobby Weaver. Center also is another problem child. Miami lost its first and second string centers. Strong point of the team could be the line, which retains most of the men from last year.

Top stars on the line are Jack Novak, All-America guard candidate who looms as one of the greatest guards in University of Miami history; Bill Miller, who was fifth best pass receiver in the country last year, and John O'Day, an all-around tackle. Top stars of the backfield are Frank Bouffard, who has been Miami's leading ground gainer for the past two years, and James Vollenweider, iron man halfback of last year's team. Vollenweider, Miller and Novak all made honorable mention All-America last year.

Miami has 24 lettermen returning, eight were lost. Team speed is good. The real key to Miami's success is the quarterback post where Miami lost every one of its signal callers.

JOE KUHARICH

HEAD COACH: Joe Kuharich

LOCATION: Notre Dame, Ind.

NICKNAME: The Fighting Irish

COLORS: Gold and Blue

CONFERENCE: Independent

ENROLLMENT: 6,500

PUBLICITY DIRECTOR: Charles M. Callahan

1960 OUTLOOK: Last season, for the Irish, was one of bad knees and resultant operations. Before the season started, George Izo, top passer, and Bill (Red) Mack, ace halfback, each suffered a knee injury. Izo eventually recovered, and his passing was largely responsible for victories in the last two games over highly-rated Iowa and Southern Cal. Myron Pottios, 1960 Captain, who it is hoped will play left guard, was hurt in the third game, and had a knee operation a few days later, and was through for the season. The number one ground-gainer of last year, Gerry Gray, Junior fullback, and the number two ground-gainer, George Sefcik, Junior left half, were both hurt in the final game and had knee operations shortly after.

Quarterback is probably the biggest problem, since Izo graduated and so did his replacement, Don White, who played most of last year. George Haffner was the number three QB and he returns.

ENROLLMENT: 2,505

PUBLICITY DIRECTOR: Marvin Francis

1960 OUTLOOK: With at least two lettermen available at every position with the exception of left end, right guard and fullback the outlook for the 1960 season is an optimistic one. Provided there are no major losses due to injuries or scholastic trouble the 1960 club should be equally as strong as the 1959 team which compiled a 6-4 record for the first winning season at Wake Forest since 1955. Coach Bill Hildebrand inherited a squad which included seven men who drew starting assignments in the final game of 1959 against South Carolina.

Heading the list of returnees is quarterback Norman Snead, a 6-4, 200-pound senior, who finished fifth in the nation in total offense last fall.

LOCATION: Columbia, S. C.

NICKNAME: Gamecocks

COLORS: Garnet and Black

CONFERENCE: Atlantic Coast

ENROLLMENT: 5,034

PUBLICITY DIRECTOR: Red Canup

1960 OUTLOOK: Coach Warren Giese says the Gamecocks will be stout in the line with veterans back at the starting forward positions and backed up by promising sophs, redshirts and advanced third stringers who showed well in spring drills. The backfield is inexperienced all the way, but has considerable promise with 6-2, 218 soph Ken Kilrea the most promising. Breakaway runners Billy Gambrell and Reggie Logan also lend threat to the attack. A rugged schedule and an inexperienced backfield makes for a practically unpredictable season.

There have been some changes in the Gamecock organization since last season. The death of athletic director and former coach Rex Enright caused much grief among South Carolina supporters although it was not unexpected after his long illness. Coach Giese was named to succeed him as athletic director. The Gamecocks sustained a severe loss in the resignation of line coach Marvin Bass to go to Georgia Tech.

CONFERENCE: Southeastern

ENROLLMENT: 10,000

PUBLICITY DIRECTOR: Gus Manning

1960 OUTLOOK: Although Tennessee will have more depth this fall than in the past few seasons, Coach Wyatt believes the outlook at end is far from rosy. Captain-elect Mike LaSorsa, who could be among the best ends in the Conference, suffered a knee injury for which an operation was required.

Mike Stratton and Cotton Lettner likely will be the ends.

Top guards are Paul Inglett and Jack Kile.

At center the Vols have one of the finest prospects to hit the campus in years in Mike Lucci.

Ken Waddell will be at wingback along with Pat Augustine and David Shields. Jim Cartwright will be the blocking back.

The fullback position will see a fight for starting role between Bunny Orr, J. W. Carter and Marty Baracca. At the all-important tailback position will be Bill Majors followed closely by Gene Etter and Glenn Glass.

CONFERENCE: Atlantic Coast

ENROLLMENT: 4,075

PUBLICITY DIRECTOR: Bob Bradley

1960 OUTLOOK: Coach Frank Howard believes he'll have another good team this fall, although the bad weather during the spring drills kept the squad inside eight of the 20 practice sessions and many important phases had to be omitted.

Howard counts 27 lettermen right now, but two of those, end Jack Webb and halfback Sonny Quesenberry, might not be able to play their final year. Both were injured during the '58 campaign and were held out last year.

Halfback is giving Howard the most worry. Although there are four experienced men back, just two of them—Harry Pavilack and Jim Wilson—are listed on the first four squads. But there is a lot of promise here from sophomores. Coleman Glaze ran first team most of spring drills and he was backed by Elmo Lam and Mack Matthews. Jimmy Hardwick should also lend a helping hand.

ENROLLMENT: 9,500

PUBLICITY DIRECTOR: Joe Blair

1960 OUTLOOK: Coach Nugent has 22 lettermen returning from the '59 team. He lost ten lettermen, eight of them linemen along with fullback Jim Joyce, the Conference leading ground gainer. There are fine backs in quarterbacks Dale Betty, Dick Novak, and Jim Davidson, a first team halfback last fall; and halfbacks Everett Cloud, Dwayne Fletcher, Bob Gallagher, Joe Mona, Don VanReenan, and upcoming soph Tom Brown.

The fullback spot appears to be the strongest with the trio of Pat Drass, Ken Houser, and John Forbes.

The end position is another strong position. In Gary Collins and Vinnie Scott, the Terps have two of the best. Collins is an all-America candidate.

PUBLICITY DIRECTOR: Ted Mann

1960 OUTLOOK: A squad that may balance its greeness with flaming desire and that numbers among its members some fine passers, some fine receivers and some fast runners is the picture of the Duke University team at the close of spring drills.

The schedule is another tough one.

Losses were heaviest from tackle to tackle where only one starter, Captain and guard Art Browning, returns from the first team and Alternate Captain and center Butch Allie and tackle Moose Bosson from the second outfit.

On the bright side Duke will have excellent ends, a fine pair of veteran halfbacks and some promising halfback newcomers, and a veteran quarterback and two brilliant sophomore signal-calling prospects.

More sophomores will play than in several years. Some are highly promising.

PUBLICITY DIRECTOR: Dick Turner

1960 OUTLOOK: With more numerous lettermen and what has been described as a bumper crop of highly promising sophomores, Coach Dick Voris has announced that Virginia's football picture will change in '60.

The new look will include better overall speed and depth and the strongest line in recent years. Ronald Gassert is a tackle of note and Gary Cuozzo is a bright sophomore.

Ends should be greatly improved. There are five lettermen. Brerry Jones is a standout. Tackles are strongest division. Louis Martig and Emory Thomas, 1959 regulars, are back. Center is a problem with no lettermen.

With Cuozza backing Arnold Dempsey and Stan Fischer, quarterback is well fortified. Improvement also is seen at the halfback positions with five lettermen and four promising sophs. The same goes at fullback. Many sophs likely will beat out old men.

Carolina Radio Coverage

All of Carolina's football games this fall, both at home and away, are scheduled to be carried by the Carolina Football Network and powerful WPTF, also with affiliate stations. Ray Reeve is the play-by-play man for the network, which comprises some 60 stations in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia, and is one of the nation's largest. Reeve was honored last year at a testimonial dinner, paying tribute to his twenty years of distinguished sports broadcasting. Bill Currie does the color. Bill Jackson, another celebrated announcer, does the broadcasting play-by-play for WPTF and Wally Ausley handles the color. They are two fine teams, with which UNC is proud to be associated.

Each home game is covered by a radio station representing the visiting team. The ABC radio network will cover the Notre Dame game.

Kenan Stadium

Kenan Memorial Stadium, home of Carolina's football games, is considered one of the most beautiful in the nation. It is located in a natural valley, surrounded by pines. It was the gift of William Rand Kenan, Jr., a distinguished and loyal son of the University, Class of 1894, and constructed as a memorial to his mother. The stadium, as originally built, seated 24,000. Now it seats close to 46,000 with temporary bleachers. The stadium was completed in 1927 and was dedicated in a game with Virginia, which the Tar Heels won by 14-13. Actually, one game, with Davidson, was played earlier than the dedication game.

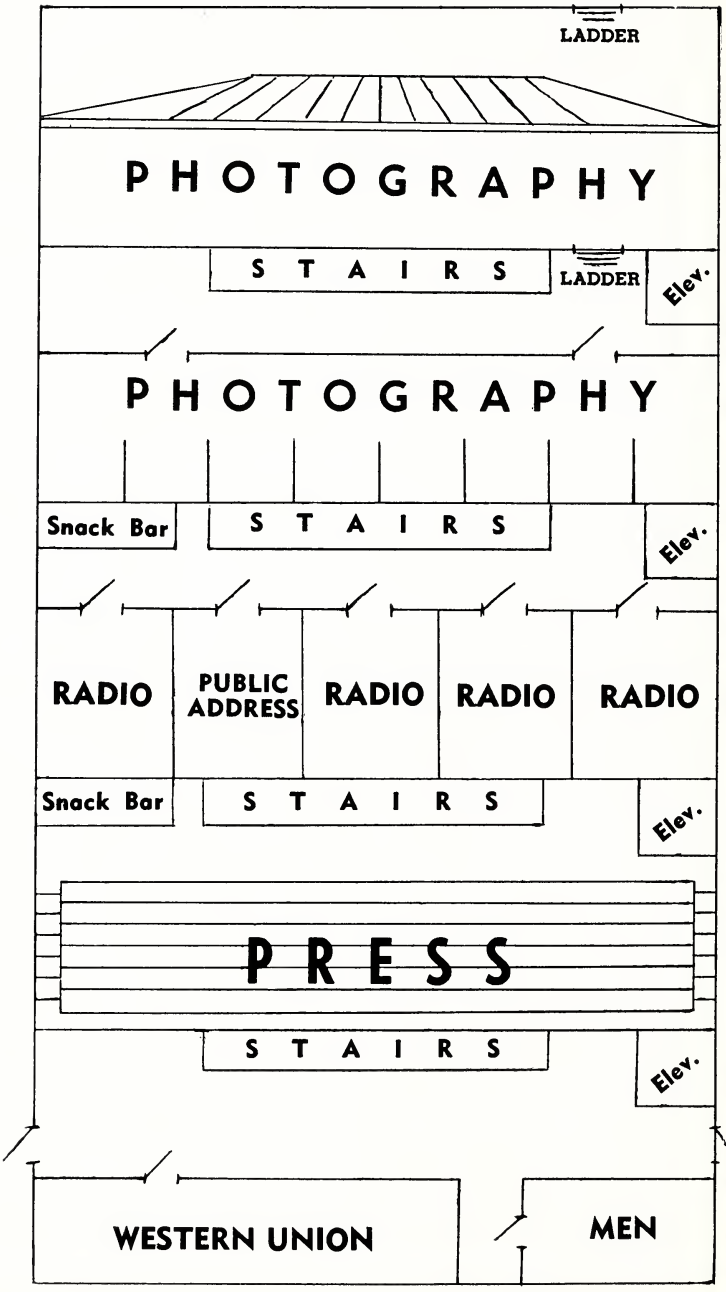
KENAN STADIUM PRESS BOX



North Carolina's Press Box

The University of North Carolina is equipped with a modern, ompact press box of unique design, outwardly of the same size and ppearance as the guest box on the opposite side of the field.

On the ground level are a rest room, Western Union room, dupli- ating facilities and foyer.

The press box proper for reporters is located on the second evel. There are seats for approximately 70 working reporters.

Three radio booths, a PA booth and a booth for the home team's oaches' telephones to the field are located on the third level. (Four ıdditional radio booths and a booth for visiting team coaches' tele- hones are located in the guest box on the opposite side of the field.)

The fourth level is for photographers, both still and movie, and vill accommodate 10 or more. Additional facilities for photographers ıre provided on the roof under canvas cover.

Snack bars are located on all levels except the ground floor. Sandwiches, hot dogs, coffee and cold drinks are available before, luring and after the game.

All the usual services are provided by our press box, which has eceived both awards—for facilities and services—made by the Foot- all Writers Association of America.

There is an electric elevator from the ground floor to all levels, or hauling of photographic and other heavy equipment. Due to the lesign of the box, no elevator is needed for passengers.

Press credentials should be requested from the Office of Sports nformation as far in advance of the game as possible. These are ustomarily processed on Monday prior to the game. Reporters should ırrange for wires with their home Western Union office.

Photographers are permitted to work on the sidelines, within he 30-yard limits at each end of the field. Photographer tickets admit o both the press box and sidelines.—Jake Wade, Chapel Hill, N. C. Office phone 9-3476, home phone 9-3591.
